

This Act needs to remain in effect in New Jersey. Businesses should not have the right to invade people's privacy through unsolicited calls that interrupt their daily lives. This act has proven effective in reducing telemarketer calls. I am no longer tired of answering phone calls that I am not interested in.